MEET - Yvette Morgan

Hi, my name is Yvette I am a freelance marketing consultant, blogger/reviewer/comper, with a passion for charity fundraising. I love new projects and driving them forward, with degrees in business and marketing I understand the power of WOM so ensure any reviews are shared with maximum reach. My reach is multi-generational, I always target the perfect demographic for the product, and appreciate the power of the silver pound, a market relatively untapped by bloggers.
